

THE FEAST OF THE Resurrection

APRIL 4, 2021

Did you know? Since the Council of Whitby in 663, the Church has marked Easter on the first Sunday that follows the first full moon of the Spring Equinox. The date therefore changes each year and falls on any day between March 22 and April 25.

Christ Church Charlotte

Welcome to your Spiritual Home! We invite you to prepare for worship wherever you are, just as you would at Church: with a few moments of prayer, quiet, and meditation before we begin.

Special greetings to our Visitors! We want your experience to be as enjoyable as possible. If you have questions, please visit our website, or contact us at visitor@christchurchcharlotte.org.

This bulletin is designed for use with the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Text in bold italics is read aloud or sung by the congregation. Text in regular italics provides directions or details.

Prelude, The Sun Will Rise

The Brilliance

Welcome

The Reverend Chip Edens

THE WORD OF GOD

Easter Acclamation, BCP 355

The Reverend Joshua Case

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Did you know? One practice of commemorating Easter is the joyous greeting of "Alleluia. Christ is risen." and a response of "He is risen indeed! Alleluia." It reminds us that Jesus is alive and in our midst and God welcomes us into a new life in the Spirit.

The Collect of the Day, BCP 222

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-9

Lila Brown

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading: Mark 16:1-8

The Reverend Lisa Saunders

Did you know?

Mark was the first gospel to be written. This is the original ending to Mark (later editions added 12 more verses) which does not include any sighting of the resurrected Jesus, as the other gospels do. The empty tomb is Mark's last work on the identity and significance of Jesus.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Reverend Chip Edens

The Apostles' Creed

The Reverend Joan Kilian

I believe in God the Father almighty creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, he will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

The Easter Prayers of the People

The Luther Family

Leader: O God, we pray that the joy and victory of Easter be celebrated throughout all creation;

People: Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: May the reconciliation you won on the cross flourish among families, communities, and nations;

People: Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Bring your resurrection hope and healing to the sick, the poor, the oppressed, and the lonely;

People: Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: As you promised paradise to the repentant thief on the cross, forgive us our sins and grant us eternal life;

People: Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Raise up in us renewed faith to discover you in the stranger and in the breaking of the bread;

People: Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: As the empty tomb gave way to the risen Lord, may our hearts give way to God's gracious will in our lives;

People: All thanks and praise to you, risen Christ. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says the parish intercessions and this concluding collect,

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people and grant that we who celebrate the Paschal feast with awe and wonder may be found worthy to attain everlasting joys; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

What happened to the confession? There is no confession on Easter Day nor during the entire fifty days of Easter, as the season celebrates the good news of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Peace

The Reverend Fred Paschall

The Offertory

The Reverend Chip Edens

The Easter offering this year will be given to Hope Vibes and Safe Alliance. We urge you to give as generously as you are able. Visit www.christchurchcharlotte.org/outreach for more information. Please note or select "Easter" on your gift via checks, online, or text-to-give at 704-741-7324. Thank you very much for your generosity.

The Offertory Anthem, Death in His Grave

John Mark McMillan

Did you know?

Death in His Grave was written by Charlotte local, John Mark McMillan.

The Lord's Prayer, BCP 364

The Reverend Connor Gwin

As our Savior has taught us, we now pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

The Reverend Joan Kilian

Did you know? The feast of the resurrection kicks off the Great 50 days of Easter. This is a season of joyous celebration as we come to understand the Resurrection of Christ and what that means for us.

Priest: Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.
